48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door" (2) - a follow-up to one of the two stories included in "The Girl Next Door" (OAD: 01/07/06). In that report, Detective Scott Dudek of the Alameda County (CA) Sheriff's Office was attempting to establish the identity of a teenage girl whose body was found on May 1, 2003 in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. Forensic sculptor Gloria Nusse created a reconstruction of the girl's face, based on nothing but her skull. After the initial 2006 report on 48 HOURS MYSTERY, a viewer called to say that the victim looked like a young girl who had been seen around Castro Valley with Miguel Castaneda, who had worked at the restaurant where the body was dumped. He had disappeared, but police received a tip that the girl and the man she had been seen with might have been from the same hometown in Mexico. Dudek and his team then went to Yahualica, Mexico. There they extensively publicized their search and handed out many fliers. A woman whose daughter was missing came forward, and a DNA sample would later confirm that she was the mother of the now-identified victim: Yesenia Nungaray. Yesenia was given a funeral in her hometown. The search for Miguel Castaneda continues. (C: Harold Dow - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 12/15/07; first rebroadcast: 06/14/08) (Graphic update for this second rebroadcast: Detective Dudek says Miguel Castaneda is living in Mexico. Despite multiple arrest warrants, Mexico is not cooperating with his extradition. There is still a $65,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of Yesenia's killer.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Stolen Dreams" - In November of 2003, Jeanne Callahan of Rockville Centre, Long Island waited for her husband, Stephen Trantel, to return home from a day of fishing. Hours later, she received a call telling her that Stephen was alive, but was under arrest -- police told Jeanne that Stephen had committed ten bank robberies. To the people who knew Stephen, he was the least likely to rob a bank - for one, he was the son of a New York City cop. And because he was a trader on Wall Street in the big money world of commodities, he wouldn't have to steal anything. But those closest to him didn't know that he was living a secret life. Stephen had worked for a trading company, but had become self-employed and was betting his own money on the future price of oil. He was doing well, but he didn't plan ahead. He purchased Jeanne her dream home and their mortgage tripled. As their other expenses increased, Stephen struggled to keep up. He lost so much money that the commodities exchange barred him from the floor. Afraid to tell his wife, Stephen decided that in order to hold on to the lifestyle he and Jeanne had grown accustomed to, he was going to have to steal money to maintain it. After doing research on the internet, Stephen robbed his first bank in July of 2003. By the time Stephen was caught four months later, he had stolen more than $60,000. In exchange for information and an admission of guilt, Stephen Trantel was sentenced to nine years in prison. Shortly after Stephen entered prison, Jeanne divorced him. He is scheduled to be released from prison in 2012. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Patti Aronofsky) (OAD: 03/15/08)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Vegas Heat" - a report on the December 14, 2005 discovery of the charred corpse of a young woman, found in a burned-out car on a Las Vegas, Nevada desert road. The car was registered to Kelly Ryan, a fitness champion who is married to Craig Titus, a Mr. Olympia competitor. Both were stars of the body building world and also hard partiers, known for using illegal drugs and pain killers. The unrecognizable body was initially thought to be Ryan, but authorities were stunned when they arrived at the couple's house only to be greeted by her at the door. When asked about the car, Craig and Kelly claimed that it had been taken the day before by Melissa James, their 31-year-old live-in assistant and a dancer, who was headed to New Jersey to spend Christmas with her mother. Melissa never made it to New Jersey and when pressed, Craig and Kelly accused her of theft - that she stole the Jaguar and used Kelly's debit card to steal from them. Detectives were lucky and discovered that Kelly's debit card was last used at Wal-Mart by Kelly, who purchased seven bottles of lighter fluid. Panicked by the police visit, Craig and Kelly confided in Megan Foley, Kelly's friend, that a fight between Kelly and Melissa had spiraled out of control - Kelly tased Melissa, injected her with narcotics and that it ended when Craig choked her. Megan's attorney contacted the police. Armed with that information, police issued a warrant for their arrest. Eventually, the FBI tracked the couple to Boston, where they were charged with murder and arson. Twenty-one days after the body was found, it was officially identified as Melissa James. But because the body was so badly burned, the coroner could not say for sure how Melissa died or if it was even murder. Craig had a different story and in an interview, told 48 HOURS that Melissa had attacked Kelly and that he interceded on his wife's behalf. Enraged, Melissa ran upstairs to her room and when Craig checked on her, she was dead. Craig also claimed that he, Melissa, and Kelly had been using drugs for days leading up to the fight and that her death was an overdose. High on drugs, they panicked and disposed of her body in the desert. As the trial was about to begin, Craig and Kelly each accepted a plea deal - Craig for second-degree murder, kidnapping, and arson; Kelly for battery and arson. After further courtroom dramatics, Craig Titus was sentenced to 21 to 55 years and Kelly Ryan to six to 17 years in prison. Craig has filed a motion to reduce his sentence. Kelly says her marriage to Craig is over. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson, Chris O'Connell) (OAD: 11/08/08) (Graphic update for this first rebroadcast: Craig Titus' request to reduce his sentence or let him stand trial was denied. Kelly Ryan has filed for a divorce.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" - an update of a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a Russian doctor who had married Hans Reiser, an American computer whiz. The couple had two children, but their marriage began to fall apart and Nina began an affair with Sean Sturgeon, Hans' best friend. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped off the children at Hans' house on Labor Day weekend and then mysteriously vanished. Her body had never been found. After investigation, Hans was arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance, and one year later, went on trial for her murder. After three days of deliberation, the jury found him guilty of first degree murder and he was sentenced to 25 years to life. Update for this rebroadcast: In the summer of 2008, Hans Reiser offered to lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a reduced verdict and reduced time in prison. The police agreed; Hans led them to her remains, which he had buried just half a mile from his house. As part of the deal, Hans was required to provide a detailed confession of how he murdered Nina, and his voice is heard describing how he strangled her. One month later, the verdict against Hans was lowered to murder in the second degree, and sentenced him to 15 years to life. Graphic updates: Nina Reiser was buried in St. Petersburg, Russia. Her children will remain in Russia with Nina's mother. Hans Reiser will be eligible for parole in 2021. He will be 58 years old. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 11/29/08)

"The Price Of Bananas" - Chiquita Brands International of Cincinnati, Ohio has admitted that it paid nearly $2 million dollars to protect its employees in Colombia -- first to the Marxist guerillas known as FARC and then to the paramilitaries who rose up to fight them, the AUC. Critics say that the money Chiquita paid may have kept their employees safe, but also helped to buy the weapons and ammunition used to massacre other people, making Chiquita complicit in those deaths. Among the interviewed are: Fernando Aguirre, Chief Executive Officer and President of Chiquita Brands International and Salvatore Mancuso, former leader of the AUC. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court) (OAD: 05/11/08 - Includes an update.)

"Brain Power" - a report on brain-computer interface or BCI, a new technology that connects the human brain to a computer, which allows people who are completely paralyzed due to illness or trauma to operate computers, write e-mails, and drive wheelchairs. Scientists hope that in the future, BCI may restore movement to paralyzed people and allow amputees to move bionic limbs. Includes comments from neuroscientist Dr. Jonathan Wolpaw of New York State's Wadsworth Center; Dr. Andy Schwartz, a neuroscientist at the University of Pittsburgh; and Brown University neuroscientist Dr. John Donoghue. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta) (OAD: 11/02/08)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Conspiracy To Kill" - A report on the suspiciously similar circumstances surrounding the deaths, 19 years apart, of the two husbands of Sonia Rios, who herself was later murdered. Rios, a native of the Philippines, first married Earl Bourdeau, a U.S. Marine whom she met in the Philippines. They settled in Lomita, California. After a stormy 21-year marriage, Earl wanted a divorce. But before Sonia would grant him one, she demanded that he go to the Philippines by himself to sell a family taxi business. Earl went, and, in August 1987, while sleeping on the couch in the home of Sonia's relatives, he was shot in the head at point-blank range. In 1990, Sonia then married Navy Commander Larry Risken. By 2006, their marriage had deteriorated, and Larry wanted a divorce. Sonia consented, but only if Larry went alone on a long-planned trip to the Philippines to visit two of Sonia's young relatives of whom he was very fond. He made the trip, and in April 2006 Larry was killed in the parking lot of a hospital there. One year later, in April 2007, Sonia herself was shot to death in her Lomita, California home. Both Earl and Larry's families are convinced that Sonia had both of her husbands murdered for their insurance money. But the murders of both men -- and the murder of Sonia Rios -- remain unsolved. Includes interviews with Sherry Jackson, sister of Larry Risken; Dennis Bourdeau, brother of Earl Bourdeau; Larry Altman, crime reporter; Henry Hoskins, friend of Sonia Rios; Bong Oteza, private investigator; Mike Rodriguez, L.A. County Sheriff's detective; Dr. Rachel Fortun, forensic pathologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Joe Halderman, Sara Rodriguez) (OAD: 01/31/09). Updated text graphics for this first rebroadcast: Sonia Rios' nephew, Eric Delacruz, and his friend, Fernando Romero, were arrested in April and charged with her murder. Both pleaded not guilty. On July 24, Sonia's friend Henry Hoskins died of a gunshot wound to the head. The coroner has ruled the death a suicide. The murders of Earl Bourdeau and Larry Risken remain unsolved.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Caught In The Crossfire" (9:00-11:00p) - an expanded and updated report (OAD: 02/24/07; first updated 06/12/07) about Charla and Darren Mack of Reno, Nevada, a married, childless couple who were swingers who liked to attend group sex parties. After their daughter Erika was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging and their marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the U.S. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. More than a year later, the trial began. The defense tried a unique strategy: self-defense in the murder of Charla and insanity for the attempted murder of Judge Weller, citing that Weller was biased towards women and was having an affair with Charla Mack. When it came time for the defense's turn, instead of taking the stand, Darren took a deal, admitting to Charla's murder, and admitting there was enough evidence to find him guilty in the attempted murder of Judge Weller. Then, three weeks later, he withdrew his guilty plea and demanded a new trial, alleging his attorneys were in it just for the money. A new trial began, and by calling his former lawyers to the stand, Darren waived his right to attorney-client privilege; the damning revelations began. Mack took the stand, insisted he acted in self-defense and was coerced and confused when he took the plea bargain. The judge ruled against Darren's motion to withdraw the plea and he was sentenced to life in prison. He still insists he acted in self-defense. This rebroadcast includes updated text graphics at its conclusion. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Peace, Love And Murder" - A report on the murder of housewife Toni Heartsong, killed in her Jupiter, Florida home on September 26, 2000. That day, police received a phone call from her husband Bob Heartsong saying that he had come home from work to discover her dead body, brutally bludgeoned and stabbed. For various reasons, Bob was initially eliminated as a possible suspect, but in 2006, new DNA technology revealed the presence of his blood under Toni's thumbnail and his DNA on her hand. He was arrested, and in 2008 he was tried for her murder. The blood evidence presented by the prosecution was deemed inconclusive, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. Among those interviewed are: Barry Soren, Toni's brother; her cousins Mel and Sandra Sorkowitz, Deb Schepp, Elissa LeJeune; Toni's sons Eli and Jake Heartsong; Florida State investigator Tim Valentine; Steve Kochakian, a former employee of Bob Heartsong; Suzye Goldstein, Bob Heartsong's new wife; Palm Beach County police John Van Houten, Bill Springer; prosecutor Barbara Burns; defense attorney Barry Maxwell; jury foreman Tony Alberto. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Sugar Land Conspiracy" (9:00-10:00p) - On December 10, 2003, the Whitaker family -- Kent, his wife Tricia, and their two sons, Bart and Kevin -- returned to their Sugar Land, Texas home from dinner at a restaurant. Upon entering the house, Kevin and his mother were fatally shot by a gunman inside the house. Kent and Bart were each shot in the shoulder. Police investigation revealed that the murders had been planned by Bart Whitaker, who had enlisted friends Steven Champagne and Chris Brashear to carry out the plot and had intended being shot himself as part of the scenario. Among those interviewed are: Kent Whitaker, who says he has forgiven his son; Marshall Slot, detective, Sugar Land Police Department; Jeff Strange and Fred Felcman, Fort Bend County prosecutors; Also includes: interviews with residents of Cerralvo, Mexico, who became acquainted with Bart Whitaker after he fled there and assumed the name 'Rudy Rios'; comments from other friends of Bart Whitaker who had previously been approached by him to help murder his family; and comments from several members of the jury who convicted Whitaker of murder and sentenced him to death. Postscripts: Chris Brashear, the trigger man, pled guilty to murder. He's eligible for parole in 30 years. Getaway driver Steven Champagne received 15 years in exchange for his testimony against Bart Whitaker. Friends involved in earlier plots against the Whitaker family were all granted immunity and are free. This rebroadcast includes updated text graphics at its conclusion. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Letter" (10:00-11:00p) - On December 3, 1998, police in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin were called to the home of Mark and Julie Jensen. Mark said he had found his wife dead in her bed. Initially, police thought suicide was a strong possibility. But a letter written by Julie before her death expressed her suspicion that Mark might kill her. A series of toxicology tests revealed in Julie's stomach a small amount of ethylene glycol, the main ingredient in antifreeze. In March 2002, Mark was arrested and charged with the first degree murder of his wife. Initially, the judge would not allow Julie's letter to be introduced as evidence in the trial. The prosecutor appealed this decision, ultimately to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Five years passed; the appeal was successful. In January 2008, Mark went on trial Julie's murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole. Includes interviews with: Julie Jensen's brothers Patrick, Paul, Mike and Larry Griffin; Florence and Dan Jensen, Mark's parents; Theresa DeFazio, teacher of one of Julie's sons; Ted and Margaret Wojt, friends of Julie Jensen; Robert Jambois, former Kenosha County District Attorney, now special prosecutor; Angie Gabrielle, Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Mary Mainland, Kenosha County medical examiner; Ed Klug, business associate of Mark Jensen; Aaron Dillard, prosecution witness. Guest: Arne Duncan, U.S. Secretary of Education

Community
Topics include: President Obama's September 8th speech to the nation's school children, focusing on personal responsibility and challenging students to value their education / response to the negative reaction to the speech from Republicans and the Conservative community, labeling the speech as "socialist ideology"; decision to make schools vaccination centers for the H1N1 Flu (Swine Flu) vaccine / common sense precautions regarding H1N1 Flu virus / recent outbreak at Washington State University; recent comparisons indicating American students lag behind their international counterparts / need to improve the graduation rate; U.S. Department of Education's Race to the Top Fund, which provides competitive grants to encourage and reward States that are creating the conditions for education innovation and reform / placing the emphasis on accountability and the importance of producing "common college-ready, career-ready standards" for students and educators / need for acting locally, in order to produce national results; problems with No Child Left Behind, the cornerstone of former President George W. Bush's education policy: under-funded and incorporating very stringent rules on the methods used, but loose on what the goals were, thereby allowing each state to create their own standards; desire to reward excellence with merit pay; problems associated with charter schools -- schools that receive public funding, but also raise money privately, allowing them to bypass some of the restrictions found in other public schools / conditions needed to allow charter schools to succeed

09/13/09

Guests: David Axelrod, White House Senior Advisor (1); Senator Olympia Snowe (R-ME), U.S. Senate Committee on Finance (2); Kathleen Parker, Syndicated Columnist, The Washington Post Writers Group (3); Roger Simon, Chief Political Columnist, Politico (3)

Health
1) Topics include: reaction to protests against President Obama's health care plan / President Obama's September 9th address to a joint session of Congress on the issue of health care reform / continued support for the public option / commitment to providing a health care plan that will be self-sufficient and not add to the deficit / criticism against President Obama for trying to address too much too soon

2) Topics include: need for the public option to be removed from any health care plan due to a lack of support among Republicans in the Senate / support for the trigger option -- which sets a deadline for private insurance companies to create plans to cover those uninsured -- even though it will not be included in the health care plan proposed by the Senate Finance Committee / commitment to presenting a bipartisan policy / agreement with the Obama Administration over including language that would prohibit funding for abortion; reaction to the shouted outburst - "You lie!" - from Representative Joe Wilson (R-SC) during President Obama's address to a joint session of Congress

3) Topics include: opinion that President Obama will allow the Senate to remove the public option from any proposed health care plan, so that some form of health care reform will be passed / reminder that President Obama promised change, negating any criticism for trying to address too much too soon / President Obama's ability to strengthen himself against opposition through his numerous speeches

Guests: President Barack Obama (1); Michael Steele, Chairman, Republican National Convention (2)

Community
1) Topics include: the challenge of health care reform and why some people remain skeptical of Obama's plan / description of the main points of his plan and acknowledgment of the complexity of reform / concern that his plan would mean new taxes for the middle class, and his refutation of this fear; reasons for a perceived element of meanness and anger in current political dialogue / health care reform as a proxy for the question of how much the government should be involved in the economy; the Attorney General's decision to re-open the criminal investigation of the CIA interrogations which took place after 9/11; the question of the possible commitment of tens of thousands of new American troops to Afghanistan; the decision not to implement a missile defense system in Poland and the Czech Republic

2) Topics include: the credibility of the claim that taxes won't be raised to pay for health care reform / Republican desire for health care reform which involves portability, tort reform, and the creation of small business pools, rather than an overhaul of the entire system; report that President Obama has asked New York Governor David Paterson to withdraw as a candidate next year because of fear that his unpopularity will drag down the Democratic Party

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Invitation To A Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. Seven years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Roger Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison. Segments include: "Shattered"; "A Hero's Tale"; "Dark Secret"; "Changing Tide"; "Hero Or Villain?" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Hal Gessner - P: Gail Zimmerman, Doug Longhini, Ian Paisley)

Update for the 12/13/08 rebroadcast: In the Spring of 2005, an inmate at the prison in Pontiac came forward and said that Mark Winger tried to involve him in a murder-for-hire plot, with DeAnn Schultz as the intended victim and if money allowed, to also kill his father-in-law, Ira Drescher. In June 2007, Winger stood trial in Pontiac and claimed that the whole thing was a fantasy he never planned to carry out. Mark Winger was convicted of soliciting murder and sentenced to another 35 years. He will never be eligible for parole. Winger's second wife has divorced him. Donnah's parents, Sara Jane and Ira Drescher, are helping other abused women and have established a fund in Donnah's name at "Women in Distress", an organization dedicated to empowering domestic violence victims. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 01/15/03; 1st rebroadcast: 06/13/03; 2nd rebroadcast: 08/25/04, included an update; 3rd rebroadcast: 12/13/08, included an update.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Kidnapped: Shawn Hornbeck's Incredible Story" (10:00-11:00p) - On October 6, 2002, eleven-year-old Shawn Hornbeck was kidnapped while riding his bicycle in his home town of Richwoods, Missouri. Over the course of the next four and a half years, he was held captive and sexually abused by his abductor, Michael Devlin. Threatened with death and the death of his parents, he took on the life Devlin dictated, posing as his son and even making friends with neighbors. Devlin wielded such terror that Shawn never revealed his real identity to anyone, despite numerous opportunities to ask for help. Then, in January 2007, Devlin abducted another youth, Ben Ownby. With the help of a witness to that abduction, the FBI was able to trace Devlin's car and confront him. When they went to Devlin's apartment, they found both Ben Ownby and Shawn Hornbeck. At his hearing, Devlin pleaded guilty. He was sentenced on multiple counts to 72 life terms and an additional 170 years in prison. Among those interviewed are: Shawn Hornbeck; his parents, Pam and Craig Akers; FBI agent Lynn Willett; and Dr. Marylene Cloitre, New York University psychologist and trauma specialist. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Seven Days Of Rage: The Craigslist Killer" - a follow-up to "Craigslist: Classified For Murder" (OAD: 04/25/09). On April 14, 2009, model and masseuse Julissa Brisman was found murdered in a Boston hotel. Over the course of the next seven days, police investigation revealed that Brisman and two other female victims of assault had been contacted through ads they had placed on the website Craigslist. Police traced computer evidence to Philip Markoff, a medical student at Boston University. He was arrested for kidnapping, armed robbery and murder. A search of his apartment produced incriminating evidence, including the gun that killed Julissa Brisman. Further investigation of Markoff's e-mail address revealed his own ads on several adult alternative-lifestyle websites. Concluding onscreen graphic: Philip Markoff is expected to stand trial next June. Craigslist renamed its erotic services section, calling it adult services. Critics say nothing has changed. Among those interviewed: Trisha Leffler, Markoff's first victim; Maria Cramer, reporter, The Boston Globe and 48 HOURS consultant; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paul LaRosa, 48 HOURS producer; Mark Pines, friend of victim Julissa Brisman; Maureen Orth, writer; Casey Jordan, attorney and psychologist; Morgan Houston, friend of Philip Markoff; Steve Huff, crime blogger and contributor to the True Crime Report. (C: Peter Van Sant, Richard Schlesinger - P: Paul LaRosa, Sarah Prior)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Our Father...The Godfather"
of the children of the late crime boss, John Gotti.

of the children of the late crime boss John Gotti discuss the family, how they were sheltered from an awareness of Gotti's lifestyle, and their ongoing love for him as head of the Gambino family. Interspersed with the interviews is a narration of John Gotti's life and activities, utilizing Gotti family and private photographs. Among the subjects discussed are the 1980 death of Gotti's young son, Frank, while riding his bike, and the subsequent disappearance of the driver of that car; the 1985 murder of John Jr.'s entry into the family business; John Jr.'s current trial, and the family claim that John Jr. killed Paul Castellano, and his sentence of life in prison. Interviewed are: Peter Gotti, and Angel Gotti, children of the late John Gotti; Joseph "Sonny" Gotti, Gotti's brother; Anthony Gotti, Gotti's nephew; John Gotti Agnello and Carmine Gotti Agnello, grandsons of John Gotti; Joe Halderman, Douglas Longhini, Josh Yager, Lourdes Aguiar. National Guard – “Reflection of Honor” features soldiers talking about the positive experiences and the positive impact the National Guard career has had on their lives.

National Guard – “Thankless Job/Cape May is an education spot about the US Coast Guard keeping our shorelines safe from drug trafficking and also watching our waterways and ports for any possible terrorist activity.

Drunk Driving Prevention – The campaign objective is to inspire dialogue and recognition of the dangers of “buzzed driving” and subsequently motivate people to stop driving buzzed.”

Underage Drinking Prevention – Urges parents to speak with their children about underage drinking in order to delay the onset of and ultimately reduce underage drinking.

Generous Nation – This campaign is about bringing awareness of the homeless to the forefront.

Substance Abuse – Montgomery Council on Substance Abuse-NCADD is raising awareness that social hosting can be dangerous to the teen. This campaign is to make parents and their teens aware of alcohol and drugs and the legal consequences of allowing it in their homes during teen parties.

Adoption – The campaign objective is to encourage the adoption of teens in the United States foster care system, and to increase the number of potential families inquiring about adoption.

Anti-Steroids – The objective here is to prevent teens from using steroids by making steroids socially unacceptable.

Veteran Support – Long term objective here is to decrease the depression and PTSD-related outcomes among returning veterans.

Hunger Prevention – Raise relevance of hunger in the U.S. and stimulate action against hunger through Feeding America, the nation’s leading domestic hunger relief organization.

COMMUNITY

Boys Town – Awareness of what Boys Town can do for children and parents. Use the Boys Town hotline for answers.

Every Child Needs Love – This is to make people aware of the number of children in North American foster care and how accessible adoption is to interested parents.

Vaccines for Teens – Information to teens about the availability of vaccines for potentially life-threatening diseases.

March of Dimes – Campaign for healthier, stronger babies.

Education

Arts Education – This PSA campaign was created to increase parental involvement in championing arts education both in and out of school.

Family Literacy – The purpose of this program is to motivate parents with low literacy skills to enroll to family literacy programs. United Negro College Fund – Encourage support for the fund because a mind is a terrible thing to waste.

High School Dropout Prevention – The objective is to encourage teens to stay in school and obtain a high school diploma.

High School Dropout Prevention – This campaign features stories of real teens who are struggling to make it through high school and encourages everyone in that teen's life to give that student the boost he/she needs to make it through graduation.

Minority Education – Supporting minority education so that we don't miss out on the next big idea tomorrow. Shows inventions by African Americans.

Civil Rights

Lunch - The objective is to inspire “modern-day abolitionists” – Americans who are willing to take small, simple steps of courage and speak out against all-too-common incidents of racial injustice that prohibit the freedoms of every citizen.

Housing Discrimination – Raise awareness of the illegality and widespread but subtle forms of housing discrimination.

Crime

Preventing Identity Theft – McGruff the Crime Dog talks about how to help prevent identity theft.
